

Get psyched- there is snow on the ground!!!

Winter, 2009

Dear Howie,

We don't want to fill up your inbox all winter, but we do want to say- its officially winter. It is not just cold, the leaves haven't just fallen, its not just that you've started wearing scarves, but the snow has fallen, the lifts are open, the skis are waxed: WINTER!! Have you even stood on top of your favorite ski resort and just looked out at the view: all that snow, none of those people, and all those freshies to be had? This terrain is no longer inaccessible. Hire Sierra Mountain Guides this winter and find out for yourself what all the fuss is about.

Sincerely,

All of us at
